STORY клубный дом АРХИТЕКТУРА

Архитектура

Жилой комплекс

Клубный дом Story проектирован ТПО «Резерв» — крупнейшим в Москве архитектурным бюро с 30-летним опытом реализации успешных проектов. Современный и функциональный стиль 16-этажного здания будет актуальным и сегодня, и через много лет. Активная геометрия фасадов и запоминающаяся архитектура будут дарить эстетическое удовольствие вам и вашим гостям.

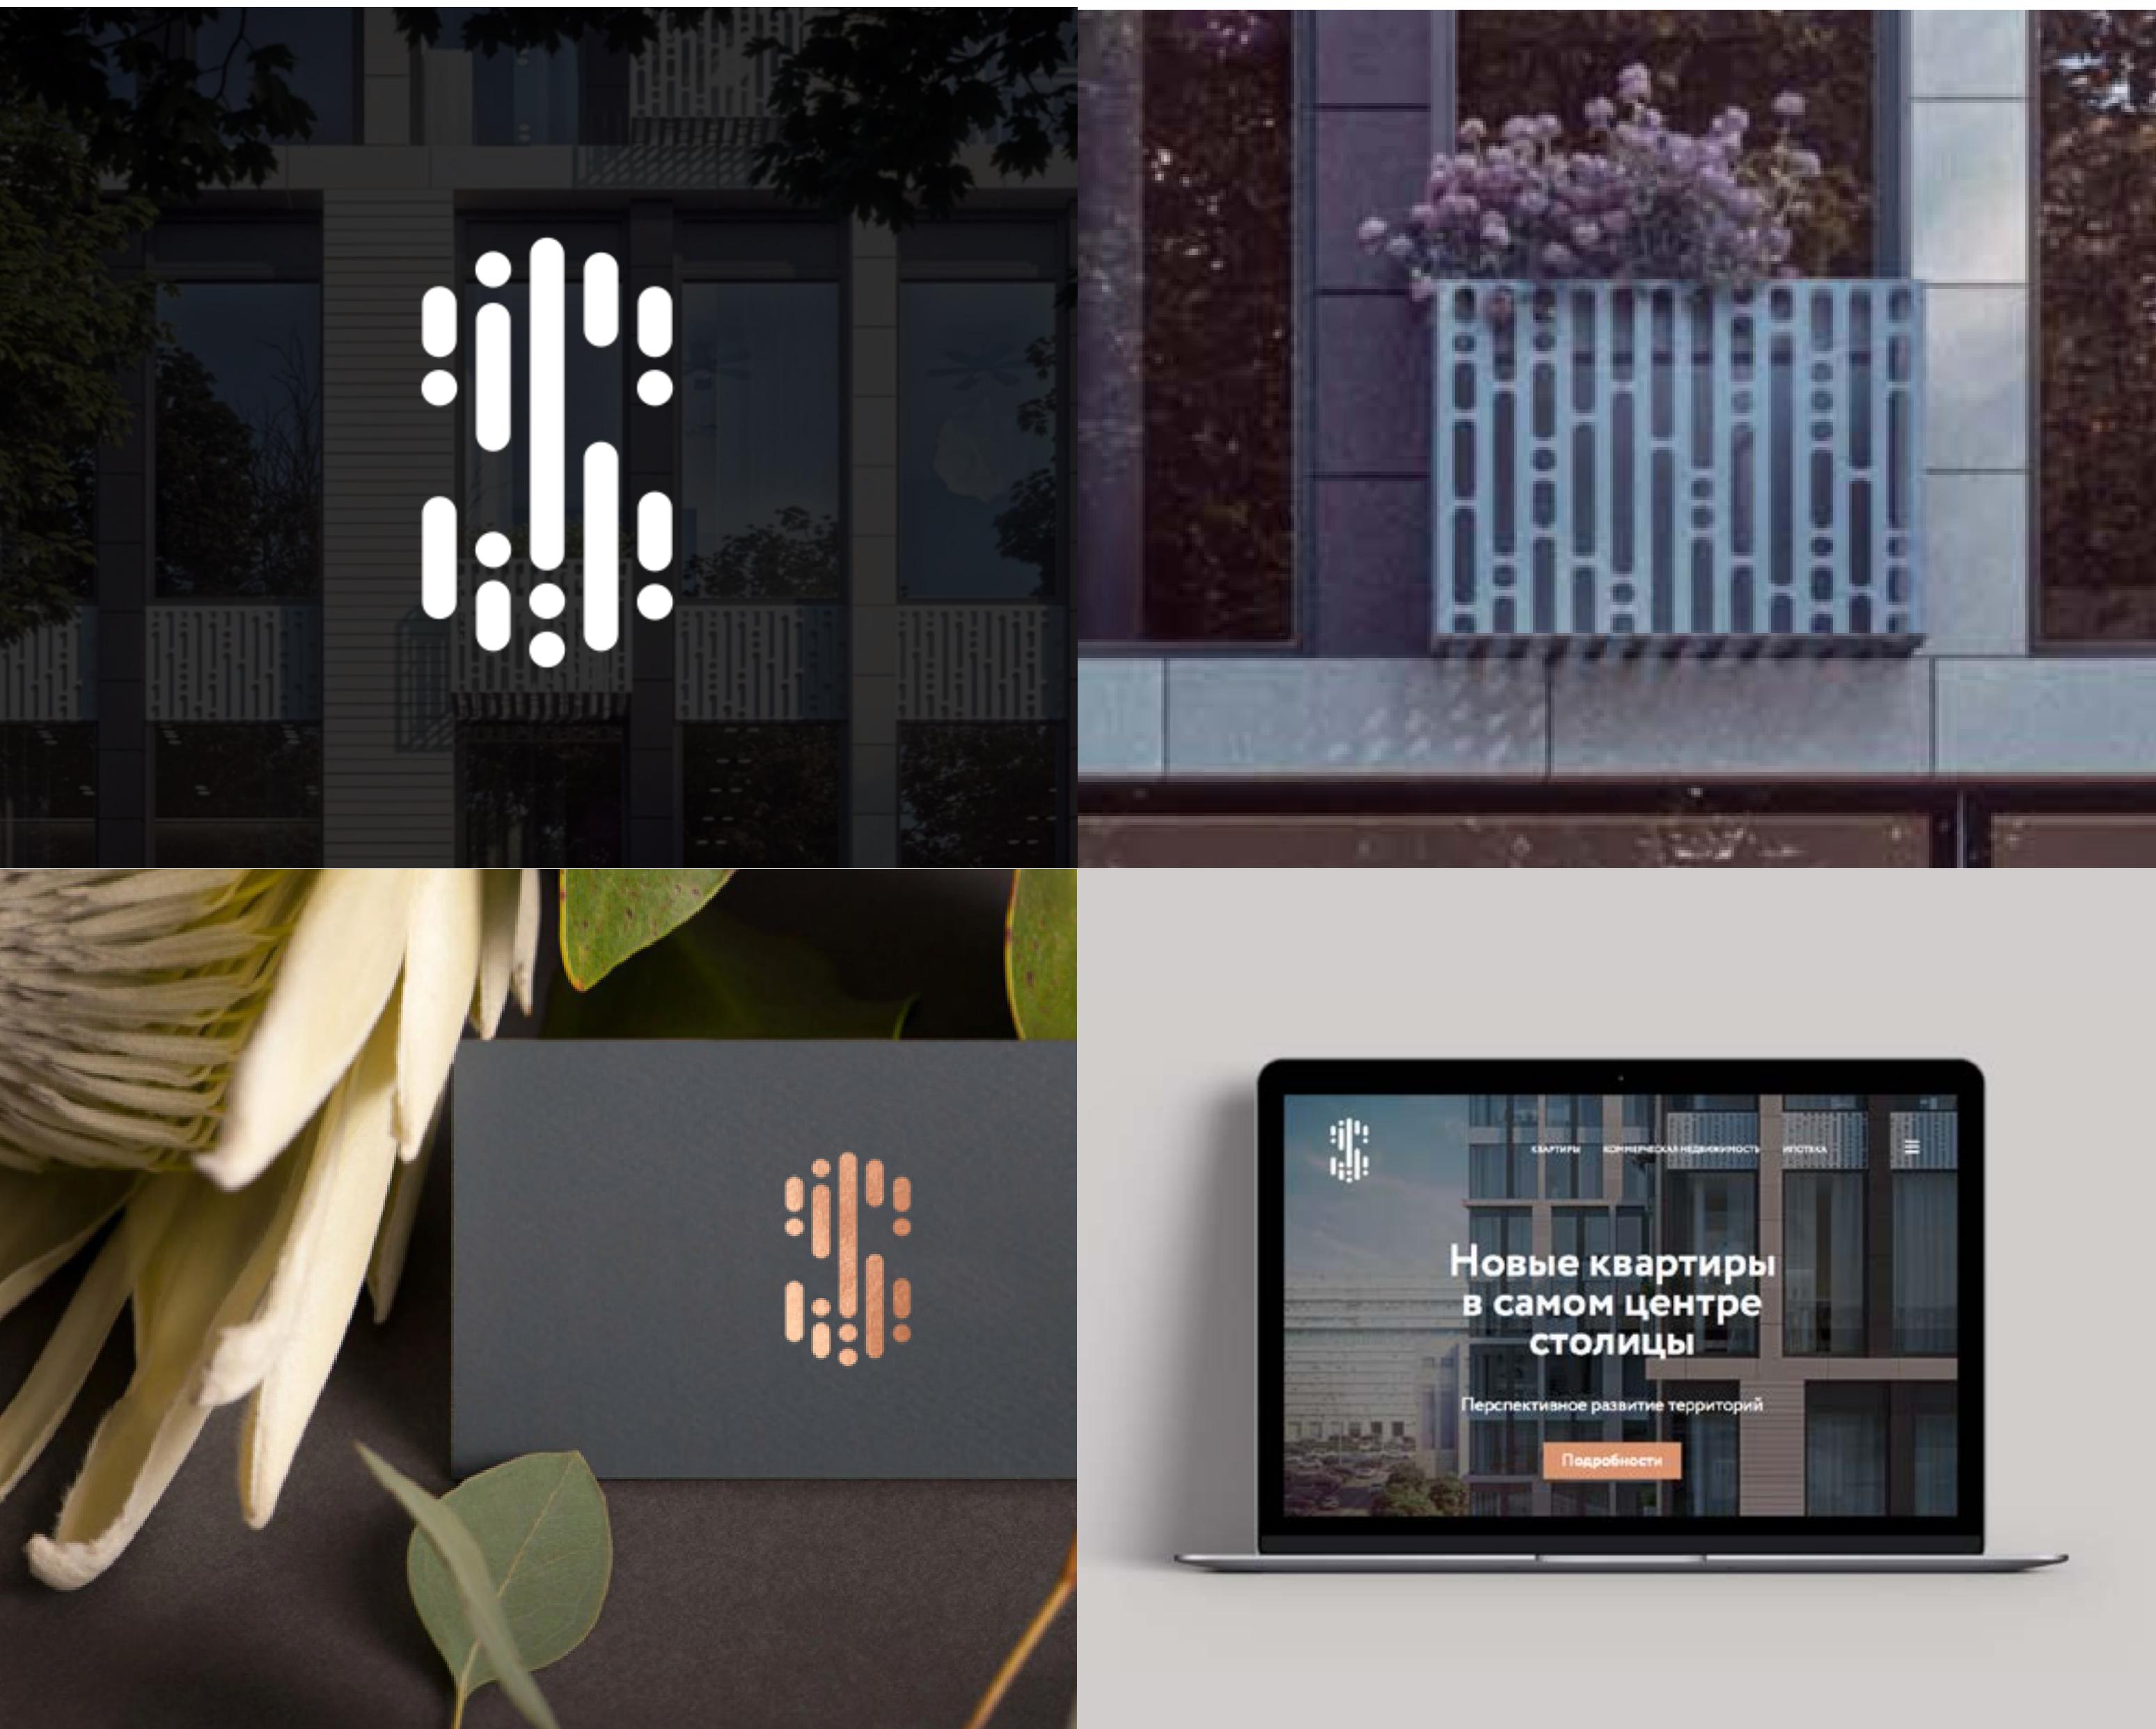

Материалы

В декоре фасадов клубного дома мы использовали современные и актуальные во все времена материалы — стекло и панели из объемной керамики, красиво сочетающиеся с деталями из алюминиевого металла, благодаря чему, дом будет эффективно смотреться при любой погоде и в любом свете.

Cryptobill Logotype

A logo for a platform for startups where they can issue their own tokens and invest the attracted funds in new cryptocurrency projects.

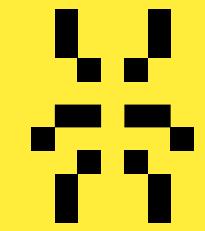

Bitware Logotype

A logo for a company building chips for cryptocurrency mining.

The collage illustrates Bitware's branding and digital presence across various platforms:

- Top Left: A hand holding a black smartphone displaying the Bitware logo, which consists of a stylized 'B' inside a blue diamond shape.
- Bottom Left: A business card for Anton Gora, COO of Bitware. The card features the Bitware logo at the top, followed by the title "COO", the name "ANTON GORA" in large letters, and contact information: "+7 903 783 2063" and "anton.gora@bitware.com". The website "bitware.com" is listed at the bottom right.
- Top Right: A screenshot of the Bitware Project Overview website. The header includes the Bitware logo and navigation links for "Data Centers", "Project Roadmap", "About Unlimit Ventures", and "Team". The main content features a map of Iceland with a red dot marking Keflavik, Iceland, and a small Icelandic flag. A text block states: "After some market research, we chose Iceland as a location for our data center. The Keflavik airport area is ideally suited for building Bitcoin mining Tier 1 data centers." Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn are at the bottom.
- Bottom Right: A close-up of a dark blue business card with the Bitware logo prominently displayed in white, set against a light blue diagonal striped background.
